

STUDENT FIRST NAME: _____ M.I.: _____ LAST NAME: _____

- Income you reported on your FAFSA does not seem sufficient to have supported your household. This form should represent how your household has met your day-to-day living expenses (rent, food, clothing).
- Provide information about any other resources/ benefits members of your household received. List any money received or paid on their behalf that was not reported on the FAFSA.

Examples: Another person paid rent, utility bills, etc., for the family or gave cash, gift cards, etc. Do NOT include support from a custodial parent whose information was already reported on FAFSA. Please note that support also includes distributions to the student from a 529 plan not owned by the student or custodial parent.
